STEP

Get your Criminal Record

Contact your local Police Service to have your fingerprints taken on a Fingerprint Form.

IMPORTANT: The Fingerprint Form must clearly show that you are applying for a Pardon.

Send the Fingerprint Form and a certified cheque, money order or bank draft for $25.00 (CDN) payable to the Receiver General for Canada to this address:

RCMP, Civil Fingerprint Screening Service, P.O. Box 8885, Ottawa, Ontario, K1G 3M8
For inquiries visit www.rcmp-grc.gc.ca or call (613) 998-6362

Wait to receive your Criminal Record (Criminal Convictions, Conditional and Absolute Discharges form) or a Certification of No Criminal Record from the RCMP.
The Parole Board of Canada will accept either one.

Check your Criminal Record carefully to make sure all of your convictions are on it. You are responsible to ensure that all of your convictions are submitted to the PBC.

If YES
go to STEP 2
on the next page

If NO

If NO, you must get a Proof of Conviction for each conviction missing from your Criminal Record, or for “no record”. Contact the court that heard your case and/or the Police Service that arrested you to get this.

The Proof of Conviction must include:

- › Date: the date and court where you were sentenced
- › Offence: the offence that resulted in your conviction
- › Sentence: the sentence you received
- › Arresting Police Force

If the Court and/or Police Service do not have a record of your conviction(s), request this in writing, and contact the Parole Board of Canada Toll-free Helpline at 1-800-874-2652 for assistance.

STEP 2

Get your Court Information

You will need additional court information IF YOU DO NOT already have proof of payment for all fines, victim surcharges, restitution, and compensation, as well as the final payment date. Also, the method of trial for each conviction (summary or indictable) is what determines eligibility (3, 5 or 10 years) as well as how the pardon request is processed. This information must be provided or the file will be considered according to the longest waiting period applicable for that specific offence.

Fill in questions 1 to 6 on the Court Information Form at the back of this Guide.
Make copies of the form first in case you need to give it to more than one Court.

Contact the Court that heard your case.

If you were sentenced in more than one Court, you must contact each Court and have them fill in this form. Give each Court a photocopy of your Criminal Record and ask each Court to fill in the section on the Court Information Form called “For Court Use Only”.

IMPORTANT! Make sure that each Court:

- › Fills in all information in the “For Court Use Only” section of the form
- › Signs and dates the form
- › Puts their official Court seal or stamp on the form
- › Gives you 2 copies of all your Court documents so you have an extra copy for yourself, in case you need these in the future (example: to enter a foreign country). It’s easier to get a copy now as the record may not be available if a pardon is granted.

Compare the information from the Court on the Court Information Form with your Criminal Record and check for the following:

- › If there is a discrepancy with the information on the Court Form and Criminal Record, or if the Court has a Record of Conviction that does not appear on your Criminal Record, you must ask the Court for a Proof of Conviction. See STEP 1: Proof of Conviction.

STEP 3

Get your Military Conduct Sheet (current and former members of the Canadian Forces only)

→ IF YOU ARE NOT a current or past member of the Canadian Forces, Go to STEP 4 on the next page.

→ IF YOU ARE a current or past member of the Canadian Forces (Regular or Reserve) you must get a certified, signed and dated copy of your Military Conduct Sheet by contacting the appropriate organization below if no conduct sheet exists you must provide a letter from your Commanding Officer.

REGULAR MEMBERS:

- › If you left less than 5 years ago, get it from the DMCARM:

DMCARM 4
101 Colonel By Drive
Ottawa, Ontario K1A 0K2

- › If you left more than 5 years ago, get it from the Personnel Records Unit:

Personnel Records Unit
National Archives of Canada
395 Wellington Street
Ottawa, Ontario K1A 0N3

RESERVE MEMBERS:

- › If you left less than 3 years ago, get it from your Commanding Officer of your last posting or Unit.

- › If you left more than 3 years ago, get it from the Personnel Records Unit:

Personnel Records Unit
National Archives of Canada
395 Wellington Street
Ottawa, Ontario K1A 0N3

IMPORTANT!

- › Include all correspondence from your Commanding Officer, National Defence or National Archives with your application.
- › For current members, your Military Conduct Sheet should be certified, signed and dated by your Commanding Officer, and is only valid for 6 months from the date of issue.
- › Make sure that your request for your Military Conduct sheet includes the following information:
 - ✓ Shows that the reason for the request is for a Pardon Application;
 - ✓ Your first and last name. (If it has since changed, it must state your name at the time);
 - ✓ Your date of birth;
 - ✓ Your military Identification Number or Service Number;
 - ✓ Your signature;
 - ✓ Enlistment and discharge dates.

STEP

Get your Local Police Records Check(s)

→ You must get a Local Police Records Check for:

- › The city or town where you live now (your current address) AND
- › For each city or town where you have lived during the last 5 years (if you lived in that city or town for 3 months or more).

IMPORTANT: Each Local Police Records Check is only valid for 6 months from the date it was issued.

Here is how to get a Local Police Records Check

Fill in ALL questions on page 1 of the Local Police Records Check Form included at the back of this Guide. Photocopy it for each local Police Service that you need to contact.

Contact the local Police Service for the address where you live right now. In the past 5 years, if you have lived at addresses that are different from where you live right now, you must contact each local Police Service for each address where you lived. If you are not sure which Police Service to contact, ask the one where you live now.

If you lived outside of Canada you still need to contact the local Police Service where you lived outside of Canada. If the Police Service outside Canada will not give you a Local Police Records Check, a signed letter from the Police Service stating that you have been of good conduct will be accepted.

If it is in a foreign language, you must have it translated into English or French and submit both the original and the translated version with your application form.

Show each local Police Service your Criminal Record and ask them to fill in the section on the Local Police Records Check Form called “For Police Use Only” on page 2 of the form.

You will need to show 1 current piece of photograph identification and 1 other piece of identification (contact the Local Police Service in advance to find out what types of identification they will accept).

IMPORTANT!

Make sure each Police Service includes the following information on each Local Police Records Check Form or the Parole Board of Canada will return it to you:

- › All information required in the ‘For Police Use Only’ section that is on page 2 of the form
- › Signature and date by the local Police Service
- › Local Police Service official seal or stamp

STEP

Get your Proof of Citizenship or Immigration Documents

→ If YOU were born IN Canada OR are NOT currently living in Canada, you do not need to get Proof of Citizenship or immigration documents. Go to Step 6 below.

If you were born outside of Canada AND you are currently living in Canada, then you must include a photocopy of your official and valid immigration documents with your Pardon Application.

If you are in Canada with no immigration status, then you must confirm this by providing a photocopy of an official document with your Pardon Application.

IMPORTANT!

Expired documents are not accepted

If your documents expire while the Parole Board of Canada is processing your Pardon Application, you must provide an updated, valid photocopy, or your Pardon Application will be delayed.

DO NOT send original immigration documents, only SEND photocopies of immigration documents.

Get a Copy of your Document to Support your Identity

To apply for a pardon, you must submit with your application form, a clear photocopy of a document which supports your identity. This government issued (Federal, Provincial or Municipal) document must have your name, date of birth and signature.

STEP

Fill in the Pardon Application Form

→ TO APPLY for a Pardon you must use the Pardon Application Form at the back of this Guide.

IMPORTANT: The Pardon Application Form is only valid for 6 months from the date you sign it.

Fill in ALL questions in the Pardon Application Form.

If you do not fill in all of the questions on both page 1 and 2 of the form, the Parole Board of Canada will return the application and all documents back to you.

Print in BLOCK letters using blue or black ink only.

If you don't have enough room to include all the requested information, please attach additional pages to the form with the information on it.

Make sure to include the $631.00 (CDN) Pardon Application Processing Fee in a certified cheque, money order or bank draft payable to the Receiver General for Canada. The Parole Board of Canada will not accept a personal cheque. Do not send cash.
