Appendix A

Document Checklist - Immigrant

This guide contains visa office specific instructions for applications to be processed in Manila, Philippines under the following Family Class Categories:

- Spouse, Common-law Partner or Conjugal Partner Category
- Dependent Child Category

Note: Important general information for ALL applicants is available on The Immigrant's Guide (IMM3999). Please read both guides carefully as this will assist you in completing your application appropriately.

Send the following documents with your application and check (☑) each box when they are enclosed.

- Send originals of all the Immigration forms listed in items 1 to 6 below and all documents requested, unless otherwise required.
- If your documents are not in English or French, include a professional translation. Failure to do so could result in substantial processing delays.

If there is a conflict between this guide and any other versions or publications, this document and its instructions take precedence and are to be followed.

MAILING YOUR APPLICATION

Include all the completed forms and required documents in an envelope and send them to your sponsor. Your sponsor is responsible to send your permanent resident visa application together with his/her sponsorship application to the Case Processing Centre in Mississauga (CPC-M). Once the sponsorship application of your sponsor is approved, your permanent resident visa application will be sent to the Manila visa office for processing.

PROCESSING TIMES

Once your completed application is received from CPCM, an Acknowledgment of Receipt letter will be sent to you by the Manila visa office. This letter will advise you of your file number and the standard processing time applicable at the time of your application. Please note that processing time for each category varies and may change from time to time. For updated information on the standard processing time, consult the Manila visa office Web site at: www.canadainternational.gc.ca/philippines/.

Note: We are unable to respond to requests for case status updates if the application is still within standard processing times.

CASE PROCESSING

The processing of your application undergoes several stages of review before a decision is made. If during the review, additional information (documents, additional medical test, etc) or an interview is required from you to enable the officer to make a decision; you will be notified by mail.

If no further information is required, the decision will be made by the officer and you will be notified if your application is approved or refused.

If your application is approved, the visa package will be sent to you via courier collect. If your application is refused, a refusal letter will be sent to you by mail. Your sponsor will also be notified of the refusal and will be advised of his/her appeal rights by letter.

If at any time during the processing of your application, there is a change in your and your sponsor's family composition or contact details (mailing address and contact numbers); you must inform the Manila visa office in writing.
