G CHILD'S PERSONAL INFORMATION

Surname (last name) and given name(s) requested to appear in travel document

Write the child's name to appear in the travel document. This name is normally the same as the surname (last name) and given name(s) shown on the child's proof of immigration status. If you are requesting a travel document in a name that is different from the name that appears on the child's immigration status document, one (1) of the following documents will be required to confirm the child's change of name:

- A legal change of name order;
- An adoption order; or
- Proof that the record of entry at Immigration, Refugees and Citizenship Canada has been amended, i.e. the approved form IMM 1436, Request to Amend the Record of Landing, Confirmation of Permanent Residence or Valid Temporary Resident Documents.

UCI

Indicate the child's Unique Client Identifier number (UCI) or Client Identification number (Client ID). It is a 8 or 10 digit number as it appears on the child's immigration document.

All former surnames

All former surnames that differ from the surname requested to appear in the travel document, including the child's surname at birth must be declared. Please separate your former surnames by a comma. These former surnames will not appear in the travel document.

Date of birth

The date of birth will be inscribed in the travel document exactly as it appears on the proof of immigration status unless Immigration, Refugees and Citizenship Canada records have been amended subsequent to the child's admission to Canada. In this case, the original approved form IMM 1436, Request to Amend the Record of Landing, Confirmation of Permanent Residence or Valid Temporary Resident Documents, is required. If the child's proof of immigration status does not show a complete date of birth, the specific year, month and day of the child's birth will be entered as shown on the child's supporting identification. Provide original supporting identification showing that date of birth or copies signed and dated by your guarantor.

Sex

If the sex or gender identifier requested to appear in the travel document does not match the child's Immigration Status Document, or the child's latest travel document, complete and submit form PPTC 644, Request – sex or gender identifier – Child Under 16 Years of Age \(PPTC 644\), available online at Canada.ca/passport.

Current home address and Mailing address (if different from current home address)

The passport will be delivered to the mailing address provided. If the mailing address changes within 30 days of submitting the child's application, you must notify the Passport Program (see section F).

Signature

Children under 16 years of age are not required to sign the application form, however children aged 11 to 15 are encouraged to sign Section 1. No one other than the child must sign in the signature box in Section 1 or in the travel document issued to the child once it is received.

H WHO MAY APPLY FOR A TRAVEL DOCUMENT FOR A CHILD?

- One of the child's parents
- The child's custodial parent in cases of separation or divorce
- The child's legal guardian

I ANTICIPATED DATE OF TRAVEL

Regardless of the date of travel you indicate on the application form, processing times and requirements for expedited services are still applicable. Processing times begin once a completed application form, payment and all required supporting documentation are received (see section B). Processing times do not include mailing time. Visit Canada.ca/passport for more details.

It is recommended that you do not finalize travel plans until you receive the requested travel document.

The Government of Canada, or any representative of the Government of Canada will not be liable for any loss incurred as a result of or arising out of the travel document not being delivered in time for you to travel on the date you have specified on the application form.

J INFORMATION ON APPLICANT AND PROOF OF PARENTAGE

All parents, including all legal guardians, are requested (and may be required) to participate in obtaining travel document services for the child and to sign the application form. The other parent(s) and legal guardian(s) may be contacted. If you do not know the current whereabouts of the other parent(s) or legal guardian(s), contact the Passport Program (Section F). If the child has more than two (2) parents or legal guardians, provide the required information (including their signatures) for each additional parent or legal guardian on a separate sheet of paper and sign and date it before you submit it with the application.

All former surnames

All former surname(s) that differ from the current surname, including the parent's surname at birth, must be declared.

Proof of parentage and proof of guardianship

You must provide one or more of the following acceptable proof of parentage documents demonstrating the relationship between the child and the parent(s) and/or legal guardian(s). - An adoption order indicating the names of the child and adopting parent(s);
- Proof of guardianship indicating the names of child and the legal guardian(s).

Exception: An application submitted for a child will be accepted without proof of parentage only if:

- a Canadian travel document was previously issued to the child in their name; and
- the parents or legal guardians who participated in the previous application are the same ones participating in this current application.

Agreements and legal documents

All documents (including but not limited to any divorce judgment or order) pertaining to the child that refer to custody, decision-making responsibilities, access, parenting time and/or mobility must be submitted with the application. If necessary, contact the applicable issuing authority to obtain all necessary documents. In processing a travel document application for a child under 16 years of age, the Passport Program must be vigilant in ensuring that the legal rights of the parents or legal guardian(s) with respect to the child are safeguarded and that the child is protected from any foreseeable harm. As such, the Passport Program must fulfill its legal obligations in delivering a travel document in the name of each child, as is outlined in the Canadian Passport Order and the Hague Convention of 25 October 1980 on the Civil Aspects of International Child Abduction. These legal obligations may require the Passport Program to request access to all legal documents naming the child in question and/or information regarding all parent(s) or legal guardian(s).

Relationship of the applicant parent with the other parent(s) and/or legal guardian(s)

Indicate your current relationship with the other parent: single (no relationship), common law, married, separated, divorced or widowed. Indicate the date of marriage to the other parent, if applicable. Additional information or documentation may be requested.

Children in foster care or undergoing an adoption process in Canada

If the child is in foster care or undergoing an adoption process in Canada, you must also complete one (1) of the following forms: PPTC 463A, PPTC 463B or PPTC 463C, Additional Information for children in foster care and children undergoing an adoption process in Canada, available online at Canada.ca/passport.

Deceased parent(s) and/or legal guardian(s)

If any of the other parents or legal guardians are deceased, you must enclose a copy of the death certificate(s) with the application. When completing section 2 on the application form, you must provide as much information on the deceased parent(s) and/or legal guardians as possible.

Additional documentation (for example, marriage certificate, legal change of name certificate, etc) may be required to link the name(s) of parents or legal guardian(s) from the proof of parentage document to the name(s) identified in section 2 of the application form or in other submitted documentation.

K PROOF OF IMMIGRATION STATUS IN CANADA

Provide a photocopy of one (1) of the valid immigration status documents listed in section 3 on the application form. Additional information may be requested to confirm the child's immigration status in Canada. An original Immigration Status Document may be required to support the child's travel document application. If you need an immigration status document, contact Immigration, Refugees and Citizenship Canada (see section F).

- The red-eye effect, tinted glasses and sunglasses make the photos unacceptable.
- Hats and head coverings must not be worn, except for religious beliefs or medical reasons. The head covering and hair must not cast shadows on the face and the full face must be clearly visible.
- The photo must show the child's head and shoulders only. The parent's or child's hands must not appear in the photo.
- The Passport Program, Immigration, Refugees and Citizenship Canada recognizes that it is difficult to obtain a neutral expression from a newborn and will be tolerant in this respect.
- For newborn babies, the photo may be taken while the child is sitting in a car seat, as long as a white blanket is placed over the seat behind the child's head. There must be no shadows on the face or shoulders, around the ears or in the background.

IMPORTANT INFORMATION CONCERNING CHILDREN TRAVELLING ABROAD

For more information, visit international.gc.ca and travel.gc.ca/child.

Q TRAVELLING WITH CHILDREN OR CHILDREN TRAVELLING ALONE

Immigration authorities in most countries are increasingly vigilant when children cross international borders. Whether travelling alone or accompanied by an adult, each child travelling abroad must have an individual valid passport or travel document and may also require supporting documentation. Prior to any travel, you should contact the embassy or consulate of all countries the child will be visiting to inquire about entry requirements.

R DOCUMENTATION TO FACILITATE TRAVEL ABROAD

The following documents may be requested to support the entry of a child to another country:

- Birth certificate showing the names of both parents.
- Agreements and legal documents that refer to custody, decision-making responsibilities, access, parenting time and/or mobility.
- A letter of consent authorizing the child to travel alone, with only one parent or with someone other than the custodian or guardian, as the case may be. The child should have a letter from every person or organization with custodial rights, guardianship rights or, in Quebec only, parental authority. Global Affairs Canada recommends that the letter be certified, stamped or sealed by an official with the authority to administer an oath or solemn declaration.
- If one of the parents is deceased, the death certificate.

S DOCUMENTATION AND TIPS TO FACILITATE THE RETURN TO CANADA

The following tips may help to avoid delays when a child is returning to Canada:

- Make sure you carry proper identification for yourself and any children travelling with you to help confirm your legal right or authorization to enter Canada upon your return.
- If you have custody of the child, carry copies of documents that specify your custody rights.
- If you are not the legal guardian of the child, carry a letter of permission or authorization giving you custody when entering Canada. When one parent is travelling with a child, a letter from the other parent can also facilitate the return of both the parent and the child. The letter should also contain telephone numbers at which the parents or legal guardians can be contacted.
- If you are travelling with a group, make sure you are in the same vehicle as the child you are accompanying when arriving at a border crossing.
- Have the child memorize a telephone number to call in case of emergency.

T CUSTODY INFORMATION

Custody or parenting arrangements in Canada may not be recognized in another country. In extreme cases, the child may not be able to leave the country visited. Before leaving on a trip, it is advised to verify with the embassy or consulate of the country or countries the child will be visiting to determine the documentation relating to custody of or decision-making responsibilities over the child that may be requested.
